The 2022
KINDNESS

Theme was chosen for its relevance. We thought this theme would set a softer, gentler tone as we move through and, hopefully, past COVID-19, reconnect on many levels, but realize we have been impacted in many ways. We also felt it necessary at a time when it is increasingly important to practice ways to seek common

WISH LIST

Join Our Board!

We are searching for new enthusiastic, responsive board members in areas of art education, finance, strategic planning, marketing. Please contact Beth@HexagonProject.org for further information.

Volunteers

We always welcome volunteers to help with workshops, and our regional exhibits! Please contact Beth@HexagonProject.org for further information.

Exhibit 2021

Our 2021 exhibit was smaller due to COVID-19 - but as rich and powerful as any year. Click HERE to see a music video slide show of the over 300 entries from the US and across the world.

Click HERE to see the entire Zoom Recognition Event featuring all of the recognized hexagons, a special message from Interdependence Founder, Sondra Myers, plus an uplifting video of entries from ground, in contrast to digging deeper divides. It is not a theme without challenges...How can we dissolve/transform divisiveness, through kindness?

We have had other related themes like Empathy, Diversity and Transforming Conflict – which you are welcome to address using any of the resources and lesson plans available on our website.
